HEARING AND DOING

Each week this section will provide next steps for going deeper with the sermon material, as well as preparing for discussion in your Grow Group. Bring this sheet with you to your group meeting.

As some of the tribes of Israel returned to the far side of the Jordan, they setup a duplicate altar of the one in the Tabernacle. The rest of Israel came to hold them accountable for this “sinful” act. Today’s homework looks at how we can hold one another accountable to following God’s path.

1. It has often been said that Christians are too judgmental and that we should not judge people. Read the following passages and then summarize in one sentence what they tell us about judging others:

Luke 6:32-38
Luke 6:39-42
1 Corinthians 5:9-13

2. Read the following texts as you prepare for discussion in your groups:

Ephesians 5:18

Acts 5:12-13

1 Timothy 5:23

Hebrews 10:23-25

Matthew 18:15-17

James 5:19-20

3. Rate yourself on these questions:

A. If I were to fall into a pattern of public sin, someone knows me enough to see it and help me turn around.

Not me (1).....Sort of (5).....That’s me (10)

B. If I were to fall into a pattern of private sin, someone knows me enough to see it and help me turn around.

Not me (1).....Sort of (5).....That’s me (10)

C. If I saw a good Christian friend struggling with a pattern of sin, I would challenge them to turn around.

Not me (1).....Sort of (5).....That’s me (10)
